

Guidelines to Authors

The scientific journal "PHARMAKEFTIKI" aims to publish review articles, short reviews, research papers and educational issues related to pharmaceutical sciences topics, covering the entire spectrum of drug discovery and development, pharmaceutical analysis and pharmaceutical technology to regulatory approval. More specific, the journal welcomes reports in medicinal chemistry and computational drug design, pharmacology, drug absorption and metabolism, pharmacokinetics, pharmacogenomics, pharmacodynamics, pharmaceutical and biomedical analysis, drug delivery, including gene delivery, drug targeting, pharmaceutical biotechnology, nanotechnology and clinical drug evaluation.

LANGUAGE - FONTS

"PHARMAKEFTIKI" is published every three months and is a bilingual edition. Manuscripts can be submitted in English or Greek language. In the latter case the title and authors names should be provided in English along with an extended English abstract at the end of the manuscript and before the references.

Manuscript should be prepared using 12 fonts lettering in double space.

TYPES OF PAPERS

- Review articles
- Mini-reviews
- Research articles
- Commentaries

FIRST PAGE OF ARTICLE

- Title of the article
Concise and informative. Abbreviations and formulae should be avoided, if possible.
- Authors' names
The authors' full names (first name, surname) should be given. Indicate with an asterisk the corresponding author.
- Affiliation
Authors' affiliation addresses (where the actual work was done) follow below the names. Indicate all affiliations with a superscript number, immediately after the author's name and in front of the appropriate address.
- Corresponding author
Full name and e-mail address should be provided.

SECOND PAGE OF ARTICLE

- Abstract
The abstract should include no more than 300 words. The length of English abstract can be extended in the case of articles written in Greek. Avoid abbreviations and reference citations in the abstract.
- Key words
Provide up to five key words.

FOLLOWING PAGES

Divide your manuscript into clearly defined and numbered sections. Subsections should be numbered 1.1 (then 1.1.1, 1.1.2, ...), 1.2, etc. (the abstract is not included in section numbering). Use this numbering also for internal cross-referencing: do not just refer to 'the text'. Any subsection may be given a brief heading. Each heading should appear on its own separate line.

Sections should start with Introduction and end up by Conclusions. In case of research articles article structure should be as follows.

- Introduction
- Material and methods

- Results Discussion Conclusions

- Results and Discussion can be combined in one section

FIGURES

Figures should be provided as TIFF (or JPEG) preferably in resolution of 300 dpi minimum and numbered with Arabic numbers. Legends to Figures should appear in a separate sheet. A Figure legend should comprise a brief description of the illustration. Keep text in the illustrations themselves to a minimum, but explain all symbols and abbreviations used. Figures that are taken from literature sources should have the permission of the publisher and the authors, unless they are modified. In the latter case the citation should be given as adapted from ref [x] .

TABLES

Number tables consecutively in accordance with their appearance in the text. A title should be provided on the top of each table. Place footnotes to tables below the table body and indicate them with superscript lowercase letters. Please, keep table format as simple as possible.

REFERENCES

All references should appear in the text within brackets and in numerical order.
